ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first European universities — Bologna, Paris, and Oxford — were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word "universitas" originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of the apprenticeship was celebrated by a "commencement" marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on the gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the manner of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, candidates for master's degrees had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times.

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an academic custom code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institution. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves; the bachelor's gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor's, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today's graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.) or gold (B.S., B.L.S.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The faculty will be wearing hoods representing many distinguished institutions of higher education, e.g., orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, maroon and white for the University of Chicago, red and black for Rutgers University, and navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia.

PAUL C. MUICK Distinguished Professor of Art

After receiving his B.F.A. in Art History and Sculpture from Ohio State University and his A.M. from the University of Chicago in Art History, Paul C. Muick returned to Ohio State, where he earned his doctorate in Art History and Sculpture. From 1960 to 1962 he studied bronze casting at the Academie der Bildenden Kunste in Munich with a grant from the German government. Joining the faculty of Mary Washington College in 1964, he has since traveled widely in the development of his professional interests, including visits to Spain, Portugal, Israel, China, Japan, Egypt, and Mexico. He has had exhibitions at, among other venues, the Capitol Hill Art League in Washington, D.C. and the Sculpture Center in New York City, as well as at the Virginia Museum in Richmond, where he presented a one-man show in 1975. As a faculty member, he has achieved a formidable reputation among colleagues and students alike, not only for the technical quality of his work, but for the passion that he brings to his art and to life itself.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER HILDY PARKS COHEN

Born in Washington, D.C., Hildy Parks Cohen has enjoyed a multi-faceted career in television, stage, and screen as an actress, a writer, and a producer.

Having received her bachelor's degree from Mary Washington College in 1945, she moved to New York City to pursue a career in drama, and quickly found work on the Broadway stage. With television just then coming into widespread popularity, she also soon began appearing regularly in programs such as "Studio One," "Danger," and "Philco Television Playhouse," as well as enjoying a ten-year run in the soap opera, "Love of Life." In addition, she appeared periodically on the quiz show "To Tell the Truth" and on various talk shows.

For the past twenty years, Ms. Cohen has been a partner in the multiple theatrical production activities of her husband, Alexander H. Cohen, both in New York and London. Together they created and produced the three major television events, "Night of 100 Stars," which benefitted the Actors Fund of America.

Ms. Cohen conceived and created the Tony Awards for national television and wrote the program for the Awards throughout the first 20 years that they aired. She wrote the Emmy Awards three times, once for each network, and has written and produced major programs for NBC, ABC, and CBS.

A dedicated supporter of Mary Washington College, she has served her alma mater as a member of the College's Regional Scholarship Committee for the Northern Region and ably chaired the very successful "Campaign for Mary Washington," the institution's most ambitious capital campaign to date. In recognition of her many contributions, she has received both the Distinguished Alumnus Award (1978) and the Washington Medal (1988).

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

HILDY PARKS COHEN Doctor of Humane Letters

ARABELLE LAWS ARRINGTON Doctor of Humane Letters

Arabelle Laws Arrington received her B.S. degree in Biology from Mary Washington College in 1941. A former teacher, she has been widely involved in the civic and political life of the Warrenton, Virginia, area where she resides.

Devoted to the ideals of liberal education upon which Mary Washington College is founded, Mrs. Arrington has given selflessly of time, treasure, and talent in order to promote the welfare of the institution. From 1975 to 1983 she was a member of the College's Board of Visitors. Always extensively involved in alumni activities, she served on the Alumni Association's Board of Directors for three terms and was honored by that organization with its Service Award in 1988.

Indicative of her concern for the financial strength of the College, Mrs. Arrington was a charter member of the Board of Directors of the Mary Washington College Foundation, Inc., and currently serves as its president. She is also a member of the Heritage Society, which recognizes individuals who have made provisions for the college in their estate plans. In 1988 she received the Washington Medal in recognition of her varied and significant contributions to the enhancement of her alma mater.

ALMA MATER

All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you.
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.

Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.
